Summary of Legislation: (Amended) This bill requires the mayor to appoint five members and the city-county council to appoint four members of the Indianapolis Historic Preservation Commission. (Current law requires the mayor to appoint all nine members.)

The bill requires the city-county council to appoint one member who is a resident of a historic district. (Current law requires the mayor to appoint at least one member who is a resident of a historic district.)

It allows the city-county council to appoint one member and the mayor to appoint two members from lists of names submitted by the Historic Landmarks Foundation of Indiana and the historical society of Marion County.

The bill allows the mayor to appoint one member who is a member of the Metropolitan Development Commission. (Current law provides that the mayor makes all of these discretionary appointments.)

The bill allows the mayor and the city-county council to each appoint a member from a list of names submitted by the local chapter of the American Institute of Architects. (Current law provides that the mayor makes the discretionary appointments.)

A member appointed before July 1, 2009, continues to serve as a member of the commission after June 30, 2009, until the member's term expires or the executive removes the member for cause.

If the executive removes the member for cause, the executive appoints a successor to serve for the remainder of the vacated term.

Effective Date: July 1, 2009.

Explanation of State Expenditures:

Explanation of State Revenues:

Explanation of Local Expenditures: Members of the Historic Preservation Commission receive no salary, but are entitled to reimbursement for any expenses incurred in the performance of their duties. Local expenditures could change if travel expenditures change due to a change in membership. The budget of the commission and its staff constitutes a part of the consolidated city budget, and the county comprises the taxing district for the commission.
